Staff in attendance: Terry Caldwell, Director; Maddie Duke, Office Manager

Meeting was called to order by Steve.

The minutes from last meeting were approved. AYES: all.

1. Terry's Report

- a. Request from Pulaski County resident regarding swimming lessons.
 - i. This individual would like to purchase a day pass for himself and a friend. His friend would then provide him with swimming lessons. The facility rules currently do not allow this.
 - ii. The board agreed to change the wording in the rules from "personal gain" to "financial gain".
- b. August Radford City: 219
- c. Maintenance shutdown recap:
 - i. Competition pool was drained to the diving well and bulkheads were repaired. The new scoreboards were installed as well as more VT graphics.
 - ii. The outside of the building was pressure washed, rust removed, gutters cleaned, and curbs painted.
 - iii. The leisure and therapy pools were drained and resurfaced. The alligator slide is currently closed until the mat can be permanently placed.
 - iv. Morgan Short painted the mural at the front desk.
- d. MCPS 2nd grade swim lessons begin next week.
- e. Fitness equipment ordered: three treadmills and one stair climber.
- f. Swim meet schedule
- g. Staff will be restocking the fish tank in the lobby.
- h. Fall events:
 - i. Tackle the Tower (offered monthly)
 - ii. Jacked O Lantern Workout: Oct. 24
 - iii. Pumpkin Splash: Oct. 27
- i. Summer Camp went great with another successful summer.

2. Old Business

- a. H2Okie Outbuilding
 - i. The Town and H2Okies are still working on the contract.
- b. HVAC
 - i. Terry has a meeting tomorrow to discuss.

Meeting adjourned.
