Terry's Report

1. Radford City Visits:
  - a. April: 640
  - b. May: 512
2. Attendance chart discussion.
3. Customer Appreciation was held May 21. Staff gave out coffee mugs, cookies, and shopping bags.
4. Beach Bash was once again successful with 203 in attendance.
5. June 20 is Play All Day VA. This is a state-wide initiative through VRPS to play all day during the longest day of the year. The CAC will be offering free daily admission.
6. This month, AEP will put a line across the street to the area of Dairy Queen. This project is expected to last two weeks.
7. New security cameras have been installed inside the facility; installation of outside cameras will be complete soon.
8. Swimming apparel is becoming more of a discussion with staff as the summer begins. The CAC staff will not allow thongs. Amelia recently discussed with Terry and stated she wanted the facility to stay family friendly.
  - a. The board agreed that if thongs are observed, the individual will be able to swim for that day but asked to wear a more appropriate suit next visit.
9. H2Okie building was approved at the last council meeting.
10. Solar panels have been approved for the back part of the roof.
11. Summer Camp began on Monday and all eight weeks are full with 35 children per week.
12. SVSL (summer league) will host meets at the CAC in June on Tuesday evenings.
13. Zone A dive meet (N. Carolina to Maine) will be held at the CAC at the end of June.
14. Olympic trials are coming up in the next couple of weeks. Several VT swimmers should be qualified but haven't been announced yet.
15. The evening custodial contract has been approved and started last month.

New Business

1. Wilderness Trail will be held September 21. The CAC will have the pirate in attendance.

The next scheduled meeting will be held on August 7.

Meeting adjourned.
